

“Community Leader Survey” Campaign – Via Google Form accessed in emailed link

How Communities Can Address Microplastic Pollution

The Smart Management of Microplastic Pollution in the Great Lakes project is seeking your input on information that would be helpful for community leaders seeking to address microplastic pollution. Please select your responses from the options below. You can also suggest ideas not included on this form. Thank you!

 treemorespears@gmail.com (not shared) Switch account

Which of these resources would be helpful in working with your community to address plastic/microplastic pollution? Check all that apply.

- General Information on Microplastic Pollution
- Information on legislative activity on plastic issues (e.g. Break Free From Plastic Act)
- Information on regulatory activity on plastic pollution (e.g. bag bans, drinking water standards)
- Classroom resources
- Informational videos
- Informational handouts
- Guidance for advocacy
- Links to Recycling Information
- Lessons learned from other communities
- Information on Green Infrastructure
- Links to information on grants that would provide funding to address plastic pollution
- Tools for monitoring microplastic pollution in your community
- Posters for businesses and other organizations to showcase actions being taken to reduce plastic pollution
- Other: _____

I would change

Your answer

Submit

Clear form

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

This form was created inside of Michigan Association of Conservation Districts. Report Abuse

Google Forms